Dear Ed,,

If I remember correctly, you got and let me have copies of some TV show transcripts a while a while back. If you have any of the anniversary shows there are some of which I'd like a copy. One in particular is the CNN Crossfire with Posner and Wecht. I've been told that on it Posner admitted that the lapel flap is not new. In his book he says it is new. He also gives it a meaning it does not have.

I have the PBS one.

I hope you have a good holiday season ahead, that we all do, and that the year ahead is also good to us all.

If you have not read John Newman's JFK and Vietnam. I recommend it highly.

Thanks and best,

Harold
